

Duels, Idle Pursuits

I am a simple child a life () with number one please do not waste my time for i am an only () so lonely

tell your friend he can shut his mouth i do not tolerate drunken fools see the divide between north and south

you see he says
we all make mistakes but i'm not like you people i know better than to waste my time on idle pursuits, idle pursuits won't get you nowhere idle pursuits, idle pursuits relationships come and go but the () starts to fade i see no meaning in what you know it does not benefit me at all as far as i can see a lonely life spent by yourself is so much more productive try get results, i get results you see he says...etc

i know better than to...etc (x2)
