Duffy, Distant Dreamer

Although you think I cope, my head is filled with hope... of some place other than here

Although you think I smile, inside all the while... I'm wondering about my destiny

I'm thinking about, all the things, I'd like to do in my life

I'm a dreamer, a distant dreamer, dreaming for hope, from today

Even when you see me frown, my heart won't let me down, because I know there's better things to come (whoa, yeah)

And when life gets tough, I feel I've had enough, I hold on to a distant star,

I'm thinking about, all the things, I'd like to do in my life...

I'm a dreamer, A distant dreamer, dreaming for hope from today

I'm a dreamer, A distant dreamer, dreaming for hope from today

Yeah, I'm a dreamer

Oooooooh... Oooooooh...

I'm a dreamer, a distant dreamer, dreaming for hope from today,

Yeah I'm a dreamer...

Oooooooh... Oooooooh...

I'm a dreamer
