

Dum Dums, Farewell You Teen Sensations

Does it really matter, does it really, really matter
If I don't get out of bed and go to work?
Does it really matter, does it really, really matter
I've been working for a jerk and it's driving me berserk

I've been doing the job of a chimpanzee
For nigh on 23 years
I don't know the guy who sits next to me
We've never, spoke, spoke, spoke spoke spoke Spoke, spoke, spoke spoke spoke

Farewell you teen sensations
I think we've had more than our time
Down with the new revolution
They'll cut you down in your prime

Accepting mediocrity easier than it used to be
Is it such a calamity to forfeit your autonomy
You resign your destiny, we'll provide security
We have the seniority so shut up and talk louder

I've been doing the job of a chimpanzee
For nigh on 23 years
Selecting the national football team
I'm your bloke, bloke, top bloke
Bloke, bloke, bloke bloke

Farewell you teen sensations
I think we've had more than our time
Down with the new revolution
They'll cut you down in your prime (x2)

woah ooo woah ooo woah ooo woah ooo woah ooo

Farewell you teen sensations
I think we've had more than our time
Down with the new revolution
They'll cut you down in your prime
They'll cut you down in your prime (x4)
