

Duncan James, Breathing

Did i die today
Coz i can't tell and i can't feel Nothing seems real
Saw you cry today
And deep inside subconscious mind
There's another way
So believe, trust in me, I'm alive

[CHORUS]

I'm breathing and i'm learning to survive
And i'm finding the way
Since you brought me back to life
Please don't walk away
Promise me you'll stay
Now i'm breathing

I'm alive today oh
And i can tell and i can feel
Everything is real
No more tears today
And deep inside my concios mind
We found a perfect way
You can see, trust in me and we'll fly

[Repeat CHORUS]

now i'm breathing
i'm breathing

so long i've played your game
I'm sick and tired of always being led
You really turned my head
You really turned my head

Strange to fall for jealousy
Another love-struck fool
Ooh maybe i was blind, blind

[Repeat CHORUS]

so long i've played your game
I'm sick and tired of always being led you really turned my head [4x]
