Duncan James, Breathing

Did i die today Coz i can't tell and i can't feel Nothing seems real Saw you cry today And deep inside subconcious mind There's another way So believe, trust in me, I'm alive

[CHORUS]

I'm breathing and i'm learning to survive And i'm finding the way Since you brought me back to life Please don't walk away Promise me you'll stay Now i'm breathing

I'm alive today oh And i can tell and i can feel Everything is real No more tears today And deep inside my concios mind We found a perfect way You can see, trust in me and we'll fly

[Repeat CHORUS] now i'm breathing i'm breathing

so long i've played your game I'm sick and tired of always being led You really turned my head You really turned my head

Strange to fall for jealousy Another love-struck fool Ooh maybe i was blind, blind

[Repeat CHORUS] so long i've played your game I'm sick and tired of always being led you really turned my head [4x]
