Duncan Sheik, Fake Plastic Trees

Green plastic watering can In the fake plastic earth She bought from a rubber man Town full of rubber plans To get rid of itself Wears her out wears her out wears her out wears her out She lives with a broken man A cracked polystyrene man Who just crumbles and burns Used to to surgery For girls for girls in the eighties But gravity always wins Wears him out wears him out wears him out wears... She looks like the real thing She tastes like the real thing My fake plastic love Can't fight the feeling no Could blow through the ceiling If I just turn and run Wears me out wears me out wears me out wears me out

If I could be who you wanted If I could be who you wanted all the time all the time