

Duncan Sheik, For You

For you I want to sing a happier song for you I'm gonna try to right all my wrongs for you I'm gonna break my bad habits there's a golden ring and I want you to have it there's a golden ring and I want you

For you I'm gonna sit and patiently wait it's great if you're early but it's fine if you're late for you I feel love and I just want to show it you're a beautiful girl and want you to know it you're a beautiful girl and want you to know it
you're a beautiful girl and want you to know it it's an infinite world and I want you

Once again I am opened
Once again I am opened
Once again I am opened
Once again I am opened

For you I'm waiting on the ticket line I gotta get back I don't wanna waste time but the people are tired and the line is so long so all I can do is sing this song
