

Duncan Sheik, Shine Inside

Are you aware? when you just stare, for hours, into the sky what do you see? can you show it to me the beauty...

I can see you shine inside
I want to see the world - see it in a new light
I can feel your spirit rise
I want to see the world through your eyes

I watch you breathe, sitting under the tree the peace that you find you take my hand, waves crash on the sand what's done - left behind

I can see you shine inside
I want to see the world - see it in a new light
how it shines

scene changes, rearranges
oh nature's song
the river is fire the river is water the river is sweet sweet wine is it the time? is there a sign? how do I find your state of mind

I can see you shine inside
I want to see the world - see it in a new light

scene changes, rearranges
oh nature's song
I'm seeing, I'm believing I'm feeling strong
the river is fire, the river is water
the river is sweet, sweet wine the river is moving, moving through me the river it shines inside
