

Dune, So Beautiful

I know a land
Where the flowers grow
Where the rainbows high and the light are low
Come take my hand
Walk into the sun
Leave the world behind
No need to run

I know a land
Where the flowers grow
Where the rainbows high and the light are low
Come take my hand
Walk into the sun
Leave the world behind
No need to run

I know a land
Where the flowers grow
Where the rainbows high and the light are low
Come take my hand
Walk into the sun
Leave the world behind
No need to run

(Aaaaaaaaaaaaaah)

I know a land
Where the flowers grow
Where the rainbows high and the light are low
Come take my hand
Walk into the sun
Leave the world behind
No need to run

So beautiful (repeat)

I know a land
Where the flowers grow
Where the rainbows high and the light are low
