

Dungeon Elite [], Ready, Set, Go!

We were running through the town
Our senses had been drowned
No place we hadn't been before
We learned to live and then
Our freedom came to an end
We have to break down this wall
Too young to live a lie
Look into my eyes

[Chorus:]

Ready, set, go it's time to run
The sky is changing we are one
Together we can make it while the world is crashing down
Don't you turn around
We are looking back again
On loneliness and pain
Never been so wide awake
Breathe slowly in and out
somewhere beyond the clouds
I can see the morning break
Too young to live a lie
Look into my eyes

[Chorus]

Leave it all behind you now
The final wall is breaking down
We are all it's all about
Nothing can stop us now
I promise you right now
I never let you down

[Chorus x2]

Don't you turn around
Don't you turn around
