

Duran Duran, Is There Something I Should Know

please please tell me now
I made a break I run out yesterday tried to find my mountain hideaway maybe next year maybe no go I know you're watching me every minute of the day yeah I've seen the signs and the looks and the pictures they give your game away yeah there's a dream that strings the road with broken glass for us to hold and I cut so far before I had to stay please please tell me now i is there something i should know is there something I should say that would make you come my way do you feel the same 'cos you don't let it show people stare and cross the road from me and jungle drums they all clear the way for me can you read my mind can you see in the snow and fiery demons all dance when you walk through that door don't say you're easy on me you're about as easy as a nuclear war cos the dream that strings the road with broken glass for us to hold and I got so far before I had to say
please please tell me now
is there something I should know
is there something I should say
is there something I should know
can you see what makes me blow
please please tell me now
is there something I should know
is there something i should say
that would make you come my way
