

Durutti Column, You've Heard It Before

Your smile breaking me off[?]

Taking some time out

Away from the places

Where you'll never fall

[chorus]

I catch my breath

I try to tell you

And you've heard it before

But I'll never grow tired

And you'll never know

What you are to me

And you never ask me

Yet I'm longing to say

[chorus]

Taking some time out

Away from the places

Where you never fall

Where you never fall
