

Dustin Kensrue, I Believe

Seen your face in every child that smiles,
but I can't help but rejoice.
And I've heard the song called thunder,
but I knew it was your voice.
Touched the holes in your calloused hands,
stuck my fingers in your side.
oh I was six-feet-deep in doubt but now I'm sure that you're alive

Chorus

And it's safe to say we'll never know everything still blessings we receive.
And it's safe to say I really don't know a thing,
still I choose to believe.

Smelt the scent of angel sweet floating in the summer air.
I have breathed in deep the incense,
while the saints send up their prayers.

I have tasted now I see
oh I see that you are good.
And I have ate your perfect body,
and I have drank your blessed blood

[chorus]

And all the answers that I find,
only take me so far down the line.
The tracks always give out

yeah it's a leap from the lions mouth.

[chorus]
