

Dusty Springfield, Sweet Lover No More

(Frishberg)

You ain't my sweet lover no more
You'd better never knock on my door
No more, no more
I'm gonna hang a lock on my door
Now you ain't my sweet lover no more

You ain't my sweet lover no more
You'd better never hang 'round my door
No more, no more
I'm gonna have a gang round my door
Now you ain't my sweet lover no more

You've been spending my cash
You've been feeding me lies
You've been talking such trash
Don't you know I'm bound to get wise?

Now, you ain't my sweet lover no more
You'll never have me walking the floor
No more, no more
You'd better stay away from my door
Now, you ain't my sweet lover no more

No more, no more
You'd better never hang 'round my door
Now, you ain't my sweet lover no more

You've been spending my cash
You've been feeding me lies
You've been talking such trash
Don't you know I'm bound to get wise

You ain't my sweet lover no more
You'll never have me walking the floor
No more, no more
You'd better stay away from my door
Now, you ain't my sweet lover no more

You ain't my sweet lover no more
You ain't my sweet lover no more
