Dusty Springfield, The Colour Of Your Eyes

Who am I To say you didn't love me? When I can't remember The colour of your eyes The colour of your eyes

I don't know How I missed loving you Still I can't remember The colour of your eyes The colour of your eyes

Why didn't you see me

Standing there Standing there with dreams of love? To fill the empty shades of grey

I can see Now that you're leaving me All the shades of autumn In the colour of your eyes The colour of your eyes
