

Dwele, I Think I Love You

[verse 1]

We've been together, less than a week
But I swear it seems like 2 years at least
Whether face to face
Or over the phone
When I hear your voice, I'm right at home

[pre-chorus]

You're so beautiful, more than a man could ever ant girl
Got me looking for cameras to see if I'm being punk'd
Trying to take it slow, Ain't no sense in lying to you or to myself

[hook]

I know it's early, I know it's soon, but truth be told,
I-I think I love you
It's unexpected, (so) out of the blue, (but I) gotta let you know (that I)
I think I love you

[verse 2]

The way you touch me, the way you look at me
Everything about you is so so sexy
You do your own thing
Got your own money
Everything about you is so damn, you're so damn beautiful

[pre-chorus]

You're so beautiful, more than a man could ever ant girl
Got me looking for Ashton to see if I'm being punk'd
Trying to take it slow, Ain't no sense in lying to you or to myself

[hook]

I know it's early, I know it's soon, but truth be told,
I-I think I love you
Its unexpected, (so) out of the blue, (but I) gotta let you know (that I)
I think I love you

[bridge]

I never felt this way so fast, so fast about anyone, real spit
Hate to admit it, but I got it bad, I got it bad baby girl
But it's a good thing

[hook]

I know it's early, I know it's soon, but truth be told,
I-I think I love you
Its unexpected, (so) out of the blue, (but I) gotta let you know (that I)
I think I love you (repeat x3)

You're so beautiful, Got me looking for, Trying to take it slow
I think I love you
