

Dwight Yoakam, It Only Hurts When I Cry

The only time I feel the pain
Is in the sunshine and the rain
I don't feel no hurt at all
Unless you count my teardrops fall
I tell the truth 'cept when I lie
It only hurts me when I cry

You couldn't tell it by the smile
That my recovery took awhile
I worked for days and nights on end
Just to walk and talk again
You can't believe the time it takes
To heal a heart once it breaks

The only time I feel the pain
Is in the sunshine and the rain
I don't feel no hurt at all
Unless you count my teardrops fall
I tell the truth 'cept when I lie
It only hurts me when I cry

Oh every other now and then
I have a small heartache again
You wouldn't know when you look at me
Those tiny scars that you can't see
It was a struggle to survive
I probably lucky I'm alive

The only time I feel the pain
Is in the sunshine and the rain
I don't feel no hurt at all
Unless you count my teardrops fall
I tell the truth 'cept when I lie
It only hurts me when I cry

I tell the truth 'cept when I lie
It only hurts me when I cry
