Dwight Yoakam, Maybe You Like It, Maybe You [

Hey girl, hey girl You warned me to go But girl, but girl Little did I know All the things you told me About what lay in store Would only make me want you more

No, not a word Had one chance to save me From your love That wicked love

There's not a prayer Left for me escaping From your love Yeah, that wicked love

Hey girl, hey girl I begged and hollered please But girl, but girl Even from my knees

All the things you told me About what lay in store Only made me want you more

--- Instrumental ---

No pain can stop
Or rid me what I'm needing
From your love
That wicked love

'Cause what I crave all night And end each day still seeking Is your love Yeah, that wicked love

Hey girl, hey girl I tried to understand But girl, but girl There ain't no way I can

'Cause all the things you told me About what lay in store Only made me want you more

Yeah, all those things you told me About what lay in store Yeah, they only made me want you more..
