

Dwight Yoakam, Sad Side Of Town

[ with Buck Owens ]

We've agreed not to mention any memories or share a single passing thought
That's just better for all concerned is what we've found
When you're living on the sad side of town
There's always hope but we don't ever let it show
Cause hopes start out real small but how they just grow
And just like dreams are better left alone is what we've found
When you're living on the sad side of town
Please never bring up how she used to laugh at night
Would smell so sweet and giggle when I squeezed her tight
If you can put a stop to that there's a chance you might Fit in here well enough to try this style of life
