

Dwight Yoakam, Take Me

Dwight Yoakam & Kelly Willis

(Kelly)

Take me, take me to your darkest room
Close every window and bolt every door
The very first moment I heard your voice
I'd be in darkness no more.

(Dwight)

Take me to your most barren desert
A thousand miles from the nearest sea
The very, very moment I saw your smile
It'll be just like heaven to me.

B: There's not any mountain too rugged to climb

D: No desert too barren to cross

B: Darlin', if you would just show a sign

D: Of love, I could bear with all loss.

Take me to Siberia

The coldest weather of the winter time
It would be just like spring in California
As long as I knew you were mine.

(Both)

It would be just like spring in California
As long as I knew you were mine

Take me, take me...
