

Dwight Yoakam, Tears For Two

Luck found me too late
To be what I could use
And caught me tempting fate
Still red handed and confused
Pride has sent me where
There's not much left to lose
Then cruelly let me care
And convinced me I could choose

Chorus:
About you
As if there was one small chance to be through
With everything I can't
So even if this worn-out heart was new
And all it's foolish hopes were true
This one lifetime just won't do
'Cause I cried enough tears for two

Dearmin only served
To take my restless sleep
Steeling comfort from these eyes
So desperate for relief
Fueled by empty promises
They never meant to keep Leaving me with nothing more
Than endless years to weep
