

Dying Breed, Apportioned Grief

[Music: Pat Johnson]

[Lyrics: Pat Johnson]

A view from the outside apportioned grief

Cut the down time enforced rage

Mock the carnage

Lost life

Grinning

The choice is made another loss

Another fall

Mock the carnage

Lost life

Grinning

The choice is made

Slice away at the denial and constraints it seems the only escape

Keeps you from

Restraints

Now the only thing that you can see comes the only thing you can see now slice away at the denia

This was not your only answer

This was not your only answer another falling

The grief collides

Another loss
