

Dying Breed, Steelwool

[Lyrics: Pat Johnson]

[Music: Pat Johnson & Andy Prietto]

Steelwool rubdown

Scoured down revealing

You're the source peeled off civility a reliance:

on abuse roots exposed violence expelled upgrade fear

Thank you, dear friend giving me direction motherf**ker

Peels the ability

A reliance: on abuse crutchless thorns piercing clearly upgrade fear

And destroy

So you want a little piece of me so you want to take a swing at me well here i am f**k

Straight to the floor

It is the past taught loveless steelwool rubdown

Scoured down revealing

You're the source peeled off civility a reliance: on abuse roots exposed violence expelled upgrade f

And destroy

All false convictions

I justify slight to the side freed with connections

And fists

It's motherf**king healthy from the wayside

Unknown blame

Taste the restraints of hate from the wayside

Unknown blame

Taste the restraints of hate
