Dying Breed, Steelwool

[Lyrics: Pat Johnson]

[Music: Pat Johnson & Amp; Andy Prietto]

Steelwool rubdown Scoured down revealing

You're the source peeled off civility a reliance:

on abuse roots exposed violence expelled upgrade fear Thank you, dear friend giving me direction motherfker

Peels the ability

A reliance:on abuse crutchless thorns piercing clearly upgrade fear

And destroy

So you want a little piece of me so you want to take a swing at me well here i am fk

Straight to the floor

It is the past taught loveless steelwool rubdown

Scoured down revealing

You're the source peeled off civility a reliance:on abuse roots exposed violence expelled upgrade f And destroy

All false convictions

I justify slight to the side freed with connections

And fists

It's motherfking healthy from the wayside

Unknown blame

Taste the restraints of hate from the wayside

Unknown blame

Taste the restraints of hate
