

Dynamite Boy, 29th & Rio Grande

Silence - There's too much going on What can I do to make my dreams come true
Grow up - I don't know what it means
To be myself, won't somebody please show me
That I will fail
And no one can help me
There is no way
How could they tell me
That I will fail
Who are they fooling
There is no way
That I'm ever quitting

You and I always try Ignore the pain
do not cry
Shrug and sigh
it's just a game and I'll never understand

Passion - for doing what I do
It's hard as hell explaining it to you
Blind faith - accepting who I am
Don't tell my friends - I'm doing all I can
