

Dynamite Boy, Suspended Animation

I smash my hands against the wall, you're surprised it doesn't fall I can't believe I trusted you true colours shining through but those times I guess they're changing (but those times I guess they're changing)

I don't know, you were my friend

no laughter, came after, suspended animation
and I better, regret her, suspended animation (yeah)

don't bend the truth a thousand ways, I was the one who was betrayed you tell yourself we should be fine you want a piece of what is mine

but those times I guess they're changing (but those times I guess they're changing)
