

DYNAZTY, Heartless Madness

Just close your eyes
Blind yourself to truth
Turn before you realise

The wisest thing to choose
You want to see the world in awe
To marvel to embrace
With logic you will lose it all
Let emotion guide this race
We see the world as we choose
Close your eyes before you

Take me
Although you hate me
For in heaven
There is no heartless madness
Blind before the truth hurts

Show me heaven

I need your heartless madness

I'll slow your fall
Shield you from all shame
We dream until we forget all
Of life eventual pain
See me just the way you want
Veil my wounds and scars
Before the image falls apart
Let us walk among the stars
With nothing left we cannot lose

Close your eyes
Together we see the world as we choose
Close your eyes before you

Take me
Although you hate me

For in heaven
There is no heartless madness
Blind me

Before the truth hurts
Show me heaven
I need your heartless madness

Close your eyes before you...

Take me
Although you hate me
For in heaven
There is no heartless madness

Blind me
Before the truth hurts
Show me heaven
I need your heartless madness

Take me
Although you hate me
For in heaven
Blind me

Before the truth hurt
Show me heaven
Ooh I need your heartless madness
Ooh I need your heartless madness
