E.L.O, Without Someone

I watch the cars move
I watch the lights up on the window
I walk along the street
I'm only thinking of you
I watch the clock staring from the wall
It hardly moves at all
It's you I'm waiting for.
CHORUS:

Without someone I can depend on

I'm lost without someone

As I go on, I hope you're remembering I'm lost without someone.

All alone, no one around

I watch the shadows falling faster

The city lights begin to glow

And then I start to realize

I count the hours as they slip away

Into another day

Wondering where you'll stay.

REPEAT ČHORUŚ

Still watching the cars move

Still watching the lights upon the window

I'm walking down the street I'm only thinking of you

I hear the night as it calls to me

It plays a symphony

It says you're gone from me.

REPEAT CHORUS
