

E-Type, I'm Flying

I've crossed the river, and I mean to go far I'm heading out on the ocean, alone, invincible
I know, in my mind, where I go, I want to see it all While I can, here I come, hear me say Once in a lifetime
follow the moonshine
Once in a lifetime
come with me
I'm flying, high up in the sky
where it all makes sense
I'm flying, you're the reason why
I am here now
I'm flying, high up in the sky
where it all makes sense
I'm flying, you're the reasons why
I'm here
I'm a juggernaut, I'm blinded by the sun, this is it Far away, there is no second chance I'm on my way, all aboard for the ride
I am already here so you can't leave me behind hear me say Once in a lifetime
follow the moonshine
Once in a lifetime
come with me
I'm flying, high up in the sky
where it all makes sense
I'm flying, you're the reason why
I am here now
I'm flying, high up in the sky
where it all makes sense
I'm flying, you're the reason why
I'm here
