

E-Type, No More Tears

No More Tears On My Own Again
I never say goodbye
Here I am
I feel like a hurricane
But upside down
I move like in M.A.D.
To every sound
Trembling before you
Because I am going down
My last stand
Is all that I am hearing
Will I ever find
An answer to what I have on my mind?
Thousand yard stare
Because I am going down
No more tears
On my own again
I never say goodbye
Final try
I am back from the other side
And right on time
To once and for all
I claim back what's mine
The future is bright
And I won't go down
No more tears
On my own again
I never say goodbye
I will be just fine
You're still on my mind
Will you ever
Tell me why?
No more tears
On my own again
I never say goodbye
You're still on my mind
Will you ever
Tell me why?
(Repeat 4x)
