

Eager, Don't Let Go

I'm trusting you, You've changed my view
I'm seeing things like I've never wanted to
Been through hell, but I don't trust me so
Don't let go if I let go
Don't let go if I let go
Who was I don't recognize
A single feature on that awful creature
Yet what seems a mile can be a mite away
Don't let go if I let go
Don't let go if i let go
Penniless, my mind's a mess
I cash You in on a lie that's dressed in a
Satin-lined limited time, but You
Don't let go if I let go...
