Eagle-Eye Cherry, Comatose (In The Arms Of Sl

The doors are closed and the walls are white Someone calls but I don't want to talk tonight

Stay away you all want to.....stay away

I'm going to be all right.....all right

Within the arms of slumber

Going to leave it all behind

Comatose gone under

Like all the other times

With pride and disdain I'm going to ignore this pain

When someone falls you're supposed to get up again

I try to oblige but I can't tonight

I'm going to be all right....all right

Within the arms of slumber

Going to leave it all behind

Comatose gone under

Like all the other times

Comfort of my dreams

I resign myself to you

Dream as I might

I'm sleeping when I'm blue

Such a pleasure when I feel myself go under

So stay away....stay away

While I'm in the arms of slumber

And I'm leaving it all behind

The magic of sweet morpheus you're doing it once again

You saved me from my sadness you saved me from my pain

Protect me from depression protect me one more night

And I'll be all right....all right

Within the arms of slumber

Leaving it all behind

Comatose gone under

Like all the other times

Comfort of my dreams

I resign myself to you Dream as I might

I'm sleeping when I'm blue

Such a pleasure when I feel myself go under

So stay away....stay away

While I'm in the arms of slumber
