

Eagle-Eye Cherry, Promises Made

Promises made, they we're lost
Somewhere beside you
Waiting around can leave some
Feeling like I do
Promises made, and we stayed
Dreaming of leaving
We will find good days for us
The sun will shine brightly
Live our life, if only for just
A moment
The good-byes are gone, but the echoes remain
To remind you
Oh, we could belong to the lucky ones
If we just tried to
Promises made, where we laid
Our days of believing
We will find good days for us
The sun will shine brightly
Live our life, if only for just
A moment
It's ok to cry for a moment
When promises shatter
But don't waste your tears for too long
Because soon it won't matter
Promises made, they were lost
But don't bother grieving
We will find good days for us
The sun will shine brightly
Live our life, if only for just
A moment
