

Eagle-Eye Cherry, Rainbow Wings

I met the devil in disguise
With his rainbow wings and a pack of lies
I had my suspicions but they were ignored
Far away the angel cries
How far away the angel sings
Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies
Don't sell your soul
I watched him preach from the book of greed
With promises of glory and how we'll succeed
I had my suspicions but they were ignored
Far away the angel cries
How far away the angel sings
Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies
Don't sell your soul
Far away the angel cries
How far away the angel sings
Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies
Don't sell your soul
