

Eagles, Take The Devil

Open up your eyes take the devil from your mind he's been holding on to you and you're so hard to find the wind outside is cold restless feeling in my soul tempting me to get away but there's no place a man can go God, will you lead me where I roam?
Help me not to let my feelings show No, No You are the one, oh, how could you be so blind?
the devil prays on runaways he's never far behind the many years I've tried Now have been revealed to me closer is the love you'll find waiting so patiently
God, Will you lead me where I roam?
Help me not to let my feelings show.
NO, NO
Take the devil
Take the Devil
from your mind
