

Earshot, Misery

looking through the hole of time, I can see the end is coming closer I can hear it calling, beating away at me touching every soul in fear, comforting from far and near how I wish you all the best, in all of your misery

Angry and I'm feeling so scared, only cuz I wanna face all these fears I close my eyes, I'm drifting out far away angry and I'm feeling so, only cuz I wanna face all these fears I close my eyes, to sleep off this misery hello darkness there inside, blacking out the light of day stick your heart out open wide, let it go and find its way looking through the hole of time, you'll never get away touching every soul in fear, in all of your misery looking through the hole of time, you'll never get away

closer I can hear it calling, beating away at me
