

Earshot, Ordinary Girl

(wait, there is too much on my mind are we here simply just to pass the time all these questions awake inside my head all these questions awake inside me)x2

chorus:

now, what I would give, what I would try to be with just an ordinary girl what I would give again, only if I could be with just an ordinary girl (stop, I'm not happy anymore you bring heartache and anger to the core I have nothing to give inside me now I have nothing to give inside me)x2

(chorus)

doesn't really matter, I'm alone now thrown out to the world do you feel the same, cuz we all feel the same sometimes
