

Earth, Wind And Fire, I'm In Love

Victor Hill, Bernard Spears & Billy Young

Alone again like an empty shell feeling like I wanna die I've been through hell so easy to be crushed by someone you love so much then you came along and picked me up and took me home so tenderly you held me in your arms you said "baby, dry your eyes" there's no need to cry

chorus:
I'm in love once again
yes it's true I love you with you my love
I'm in love once again
yes it's true I love you
with all my heart

There I was washed up on a shore crying my heart out I just can't take no more

My life had come to an end I was ready to give in I closed my eyes in one last silent prayer only to look up and find you standing there I looked into your eyes and then I realized
