

Earth Wind And Fire, Wanna Be The Man

M.C. Hammer & K. Lynette Patterson

rap:

Yo! bust this!

I got a plan to take you by the hand and whisper in your ear that I wanna be your man so understand the bottom line plan I do do do do wanna be your man You've been on a mission baby to find the man in your life you heart-it's been illin' baby to find someone to treat you right

The question now is me will it hurt ya to believe the love you see in my eyes tho distant you choose to be my sincerity will bring you around in time chorus:

wanna be wanna be wanna be wanna be wanna be I wanna be the man in your life!!!

rap:

Right now I need your attention and be the man when you talk that you mention your old lover he don't need no extension 'cause he's out and I'm whatcha missin'

I've got a vision baby I can see a change coming in sight my heart! open to you baby I feel our love coming to light

Alone you do all right my love will take you high higher higher, higher higher I'll be there by your side on clouds we will ride through the raining storm

rap:

I need a minute and I'll be in it you've got the love and you know I wanna win it stop looking 'cause you've been found and your love is cold sweeter than a chocolate mound so give it to me and understand that I'm the one who wanna be your man I gotta plan to take you by the hand 'cause I wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna, be your man bust it!

yo! let's dance yeah

funky music and this is def the kickin' sound of EWF and they do it like nobody else hyped up like myself yeah!

rap:

hold on baby, wait a minute so give it to me and come my way and be my lover for the rest of my days give it to me and come on through 'cause I wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna be with you

chorus
