

Earth, Wind & Fire, When Love Goes Wrong

Philip Bailey, Alan Glass & Andre Kippel

It's a moonlight night, a hot July, a rainy day in August well it doesn't matter where you are everything is magic Ain't it strange that love can make you feel like you're floating on air
You can see some good in everyone anywhere That's when you least expect the pain here comes the rain what's the mystery of change, that no one knows

When love goes wrong, nothing goes right Days last so long, the lonely nights
When love goes wrong

It's the thrill you feel, when sex appeals pounding you like thunder When that someone's there to pull you in It's in a spell you're under Ain't it strange that love can make you feel
like you're floating on air
You can see some good in everyone anywhere well it doesn't matter who or what ya going through If the table turns on you, then you will know

So if you've got someone to love, love them while you can
If you got someone to hold, don't throw it away

When love goes wrong you fall apart try as you might, a broken heart.
