

Earth, Wind & Fire, You Went Away

Ross Vanelli & Philip Bailey

How can you explain that we're apart
When all we've known is being together
Time had made our love a work of art
So sure we were, that nothing could change us
The dreams we thought tomorrow would bring us, were fading away

Oh you reassured hope and I believed that never would our promise be broken And now I question what is yet to be When all is left of me is a token of dreams we use to build upon each day
But you wouldn't stay

You don't know the very best part of me
You don't know cause you went away
I can't believe you want no part of me (Ever) since you went away, there's nothing quite the same in my life

I may be shaken by the night
But I know the truth will never mislead me
I have the love, I have my life
And even with your memories beside me
I know the strength inside me
Will guide me all of the way
