

EARTHGANG, All Eyes On Me

Warriors die but they live in the sky
I never seen a Gucci watch in my future
Sign of the times
And God whispered in my dreams
Shawty open your eyes
I got so much more in store for you they can't touch what's mine Packed my whole life's precious moments in a line
And shawty's singing my songs
I think she knows what's on my mind
She think she knows what on my mind

All eyes on me
I want all my niggas free
I could Tat a hundred tears on my face
I could call out a hundred names
Got a 20 dollars bill get ya hands up
You survive last year get ya hands up.
I know the money tight, that stimmy Check light,
I should stash some but we gone ball for the night.

Black Lives Matter, yeah I said it hoe.
Trap lives matter, gotta let em know.
My cousin popping pills till the pain gone.
His Daddy out of jail
He just came home.
He prolly need a hug yeah but you know he thug.
Tryna find a way to make a dollar tree shake.
These niggas lying.
These niggas fake.
Efen in the glove box you know I'm concealing it.
Racism still alive, now we just revealing it.
Niggas talking down but I still flex, snakes in the grass but I still step,

All eyes on me
Working magic with that PPP
I could Tat a hundred tears on my face
I could call out a hundred names
Got a 20 dollars bill get ya hands up
You survived last year get hands up.
I know the money tight, that stimmy Check light,
I should stash some but we gone ball for the night.

Momma I ain't made till you quit yo 9-5
I was on the road when I found out my uncle died lost a lotta sleep I know we shoulda talked more I work so hard I can't forget what this is all for roll up sum just a way to burn away the guilt we been trained only pain make it real do need no one to validate the way I feel I been really in the field since Ben hill if your diamonds don't dance what's the chain of command?
Silicon Valley bosses rockin dockers and vans WowGr8 for the fans
call me doc if we friends I'm barefoot walking thru the creek in thousand dollar pants you tryna stay cool w ya bm put ya hands up speaker knockerz I'm too faded can't even dap u up shoulda died so many times but I know that pussy tight if nothin else Its still another reason to survive I realize it's all eyes on me
world is crazy niggas ducking when you sneeze

I been fuckin got a family to feed and I don't plan on ever stopping dropping seeds tryna outwork my libido run them bands up if you take care of yo people put yo hands up yeah u know the vibes this is real life
can't nobody tell me I ain't ballin for the night

All eyes on me
I want all my niggas free
I could Tat a hundred tears on my face
I could call out a hundred names
Got a 20 dollars bill get ya hands up
You survive last year get ya hands up.
I know the money tight, that stimmy Check light,
I should stash some but we gone ball for the night
