

Earthlings?, Stoner Rock Rules (Who Wrote)

I am the god of underwear
I stole Satan's soul at the crossroads
I threw it in a trunk and drove it to a rock show
I'm just glad that the owner has video
I taught a baboon how to party like a nigger
I put the pound in the sound and made the pool bigger
Yeah

I am a old-time spiritual
I am a voodoo ritual
I rolled one, a blunt, then went to told a man
That is where dudes go who can cure a man
Now here comes a visitation
They rain down on you with information
They got the talent, but they ain't got the tools
They needed money and the stoner rock rules
I put the gus in Josh and the balls on Nick
I put the cup in Rob, makes the chicks flip
