

Earthlings?, Tea Glitter

I can't sleep
I can't fuck
I can't eat to tell my feet from left or right
My brains are water salad
slippin' and slide off...
left right
I dug the bed so deep
I gots to leave a light on day and night
I've lived above the street where the sickened commuters wander by, and buy

I'm living confusion
decadent to the bottom
Mirror madness rules my day and night
If I can only surmise
Peeking and hiding and slipping and sliding I don't know ?
Yeah!

What should I do?
What should I do?

Too close to my moods
cozy up to my mind
But no insult
The voices in my head stay, stay out of the fray
A fool
Confusing answers to all my questions remain
What's wrong? What's right?
Talking heads with their puppet ways
The law says it's time to go.

I'm living confusion
decadent to the bottom
Mirror madness rules my day and night
If I can only surmise
Peeking and hiding and Slipping and sliding I don't know ?

Yeah!
Uh, huh.
Yeah!

(left, right)

Can't draw my conclusion
Decadent to the bottom?
Mirror madness rules my day and night
(right, left)
If I can only surmise
Peeking and hiding and slipping and sliding and slipping and sliding and peeking and hiding Woohoo! I know, yeah. Alright.
Mirror madness rocks my day and night
If I can only surmise
Peeking and hiding and slipping and sliding I don't know ?
