

Earthtone9, Amnesia

i would walk
to remember to forget
what do i have to offer you the offer is not empty the glass is so full i wish that i could show you proof i know that you are a gift to me
i will lay where i fall
little matters anymore
no need to fight the tide
all that i need is inside
i would wait
i feel the suns warmth on my face like the most beautiful flower you are lifes gift to me
