

Easily amused, Still searching

Talk, talk, talk
Laugh, laugh, laugh
Til I'm blue and facing truth
Sing, sing, sing
Are you listening?
I'm distracted
I'm out of tune
I'm still searching
Just leave me alone
Don't want your sympathy
Fight, fight, fight
Til broad daylight
With the ghost in the back of my room
I try, try, try
With the devil in disguise
On a count that I will lose
I'm still searching
Just leave me alone
Don't want your sympathy
I won't bend down
I won't bow to the thunder raging at the sun
My mercy fight
My child inside
Bursting fire behind the glass
I'm still searching
Just leave me alone
Don't want your sympathy
