

East West, Thorn Of Rage

Living like a dog, among a swine, among a trough full of slime I want to puke on all the times
they pissed me off,
don't give a slam
about a thing, they wanna fight, I'm gonna cream another punk because I'm mean, from all the pretty things I've seen.
You just kneel down beside the bench, all you do is pay your money and forget the rest, I say forget it man, I want to know the lord, I want to take up his cross, I want to take up his sword It doesn't matter if you're white or black, He says we're sacred so deal with that, And don't bend the world to fit your style, just teach it right to make it worth your while.

Thorn of Rage

Your prayers aren't answered, you wonder why, It's probably cause you don't know the guy, you gotta know who, you're talking to, cause if you don't well it's no use, you gotta find time, to read the word everyday you say that's absurd, you gotta love the Lord your God, with all your heart and with all your mind.
