

Eastmountainsouth, Show Me The River

I've been a traveler of far away lands I've got love on my mind, but death on these hands come homeward angel, show me the way or will fate leave me dead in the tracks where I lay show me the river that leads to my home back to the one that I love show me the wind that constantly blows and I will fly away, fly away home since we were parted I know I have changed you'll see the blood that was shed in the lines on my face but now that I've turned my back on the fight I'm gonna steal back my life like a thief in the night chorus

I come to you through fire and snow over high rolling hills and the valleys below with all that I've suffered I'm still on this road and if I hold you again will never let go.
