

Eastmountainsouth, You Dance

I won't face another day
I won't wait until tomorrow
I won't spend another night without you let me carry you away let me wake you every morning let me wander every day beside you

'cause you dance in my head, in my heart, in my everything
you belong

you won't worry 'bout a thing you can sleep a little longer you can dream another dream beside me I could walk another road
I could sing another sad song but I could never make it home without you

you belong

'cause you dance in my head, in my heart, in my hands.....
