

Easyworld, You & Me

Now feel it good and dirty
I'm gonna hurt somebody
I hope you're feeling thirsty sweet thing
Cos I'm courting controversy

I know you look like you're innocent baby
I know you tell all your friends that you hate me
But every weekend you're at it like crazy
You and me

So come around and see me
I mix a mean martini
And maybe later beat me senseless
And after dinner eat me

I know you look like you're innocent baby
I know you tell all your friends that you hate me
But every weekend you're at it like crazy
You and me

Yeah yeah yeah
Its some fine revolution
And there's nobody can keep you down
I've paid you bitch now love me, yeah
Coz that's the way it is now
